RESERVATIONS AND PAYMENTS

- Payment is due when making an activity or rental reservation:
 - Full payment is due for all rentals and most activities at time of booking.
 - A 50% deposit is required for all Perfect Days, Perfect Overnights, WOW Workshops, and/or custom group trips when booked more than 2 weeks out; Adventure Days require a $90 deposit. If activity is less than two weeks out, full payment is due. Remaining balances are due 7 days prior and auto-collected at that time (unless otherwise stated).
- Payments may be made by cash or credit card; alternative payment methods are welcomed and can be arranged on advanced bookings.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

If it's not safe to play, you don't pay.*

If Woods & Waters completely cancels a one day or shorter duration rental or activity due to unsafe weather conditions, or otherwise, the booking will either be rescheduled (if possible) or refunded (minus the 5% booking fee). Impacted bookings will however receive a promo code of $10 off either per rental item or number of participants in their current reservation to be used toward a future reservation. Participants of multi-day rentals or activities may encounter a period of adverse conditions; although we will not refund your trip, we will try to shift the planned itinerary around. For those involved in skill building courses, challenging conditions may allow for putting some new skills to the test.

- Cancellations must be made by phone or email.
- For reservations more than 7 days away, the 5% booking fee will be retained.*
- For reservations between 7 and 4 days before scheduled rental or activity, there is a cancellation fee equal to 10% of booking.*
- For reservations less than 3 days before activity or rental, the booking is non-refundable.
- We do not make exceptions to the cancellation policy for any reason, including inclement (but safe) weather or personal emergencies. (see Transfers)
- There is no refund for arriving late and missing your scheduled time slot and a trip having already departed or equipment subsequently being rented out, participants choosing to be done early, or ending early due to arising unsafe conditions. However if participants can be accommodated on a later time slot, we will make a good faith effort to do so.
- “Booking” refers to monies paid to Woods & Waters.

 Perfect Day, Adventure Days, or 1-day custom group trips canceled between 14 and 4 days prior, there is a cancellation fee equal to 25% of booking; for Perfect Overnight or multi-day custom group trips, there is a cancellation fee equal to 50% of booking. If any of these activities are canceled more than 14 days out, there is a cancellation fee equal to 10% of booking. For WOW Workshops between 30 and 15 prior, there is a cancellation fee equal to 25% of booking, if between 14 and 4 days prior, there is a cancellation fee equal to 50% of booking — however if we can fill your spot, the cancellation fee will only be 10%. Accommodations (if booked through us) will count as part of cancellation fee.*

TRANSFERS

- For all reservations, if spots or resources are available for a different activity or rental within the same season, you may transfer between them.
- If others have already reserved equipment or sold out activities for your alternate date or time, due to staff and/or equipment availability, you may need to seek out additional alternative dates or times.
- If moving a reservation to a different season from the one originally scheduled, you may be required to pay additional costs.

PARTICIPANT RESPONSIBILITIES

You are ultimately responsible for determining your fitness ability for any activity or use of rental equipment. By paying for an activity or rental and signing the waiver and acknowledgment of risk form, the participant certifies that they do not have any physical or other condition that would create a hazard for themselves or other participants. It is essential that any participant with a medical condition requiring regular treatment or which may be affected by vigorous exertion, heat, cold, other natural phenomenon, or particular foods, notifies Woods & Waters and/or the trip guide(s), in advance of their scheduled event. Wood & Waters assumes no liability for medical care or for special dietary requirements. The judgment of Woods & Waters, or its guides, shall make the ultimate determination of an individual participant's fitness to embark upon, or to continue, an activity or rental.

- Under most circumstances, if you are of an adventurous spirit and in reasonably good health, you should have no problem enjoying a Woods & Waters activity.
- People with medical conditions, including pregnancy, should attain a physician's approval before undertaking new physical activity.
- If you have health or fitness concerns, please discuss with us before booking.
- Woods & Waters reserves the right to deny or exclude participation, at any time, to any person or group for any reason we feel is related to the safety of our activities or use of our rental equipment, or if any person or group is deemed unsuitable for the rigors of their chosen activity or use of our rental equipment
- There is inherent risk in any activity. Kayaks do capsize and bikes can hit things. During guided activities, guide(s) will evaluate the situation and assist — barring any risks of endangerment — within their skill set. Either during a guided activity or when renting equipment, If you are not strong and agile enough to “self-help” without further endangering yourself or others, realize you are assuming additional personal risk. For kayaking activities, we reserve the right not to accept or rent to passengers weighing more than 275 pounds or with a waist/chest size exceeding 56 inches.
- Upon booking an activity, each participant is required to fill out a questionnaire that is used to identify possible risks and challenges (such as swimming ability, fitness level, and food allergies) that may inhibit your ability to safely enjoy your activity. We are not medical professionals, but we are aware of what we can expect to manage in a remote setting.
- Once a participant's activity questionnaire has been discussed, medical circumstances will not be considered as exceptions to our cancellation policy.
- If upon arrival — or at any time during the activity or rental period — a participant is found to have misled Woods & Waters regarding their physical abilities, medical conditions, or is found in any way otherwise unfit for the rigors of their chosen activity or use of our rental equipment, there will be no refund.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RISK AND WAIVER

Risk management is always our utmost concern, therefore participants will be made aware that there are risks associated with recreational activities or use of rental equipment. Due to the nature of the activities or activities done with rented equipment, everyone is required to sign an acknowledgment of risk/waiver before undertaking the activity or use of rental equipment. Anyone who refuses to sign the form will not be allowed to participate or rent, and consistent with Woods & Waters cancellation policy, there will be no refund of fees at that time.
